Replace the words in italics with the correct phrasal verb. Don't forget to make changes (conjugations, separations, etc.) when necessary.

7 Now replace the words in italics with one of the verbs in blue from Activity 6 to make new sentences that have the same meaning.

a She owes me $100. I hope she gives it back to me soon.

.....

b People who grow up in cold countries are more used to the cold than people who are raised in a warm climate.

.....

c This is a very difficult dilemma, but I'm trying to find the right answer.

.....

d This old building should be destroyed as it's very dangerous and could fall.

.....

e The meeting will have to be postponed until next week as an emergency has come up.

.....

f Her acting career is suddenly going very well. She's appearing in two new movies this year.

.....

g Could you make the volume lower, please – it's very high and it's hard to talk.

.....

h You need to be more assertive and give your opinion or you'll be ignored.

.....

LIVEWORKSHEETS