Solve each problem and write the answer in the box.

1. In the morning, Jermaine found 23 seashells on the beach. In the afternoon, he found 10 more. In the evening, he found 1 more. How many seashells did Jermaine find in all?

   _____

   If he gives 10 to his brother, how many seashells will Jermaine have left?

   _____

2. Vicente puts 19 stamps in his book on Monday. He puts in 32 stamps on Tuesday. How many stamps does Vicente put in his book?

   _____

   If Vicente's book holds 90 stamps, how many more stamps does he need to fill his book?

   _____

3. At the school fair, 29 cupcakes were sold and 19 were left over. How many cupcakes were brought to the fair?

   _____

4. There are 136 students in the fourth grade at Claymont Elementary School. 27 of them brought sack lunches to school. The rest buy the hot lunch. How many students are buying a hot lunch?

   _____

5. Erasers come in boxes of 10. Bishop has 14 boxes. James has 5 boxes.

   a. How many erasers does Bishop have? _____

   b. How many erasers does James have? _____

   c. If James gets another box, how many erasers do they have in all? _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS