

2  Listen to some people speaking and write the words or phrases you hear which mean the same as the phrases below.

- 1 pregnant women _____
- 2 has a higher value _____
- 3 worries about the environment _____
- 4 studies disagree about that _____
- 5 not earning much money _____
- 6 a very young child _____
- 7 looking after their children _____

3  You will hear a radio interview with a woman called Susie Wright, who is the health correspondent for a radio station. For questions 1-7, choose the best answer (A, B or C).

- 1 Why did the Finnish government decide to offer the baby box to all mothers?
 - A Too many families couldn't afford the things they needed.
 - B They wanted all expectant mothers to receive health care.
 - C Doctors complained that the original scheme was unfair.
- 2 Mothers can receive a baby box
 - A only for their first child.
 - B only if they pay for the second or third box.
 - C every time they have a child.
- 3 How have the contents of the box changed over time?
 - A Some items have changed because of ecological concerns.
 - B There are fewer things in the box now than there used to be.
 - C The boxes always contain the latest materials.
- 4 What cultural benefits have the boxes had?
 - A Finnish children are happier than children in other nations.
 - B The standard of reading in Finnish children has improved.
 - C There has been a change in family sleeping habits.
- 5 What does Susie say about Finnish babies sleeping outside?
 - A Babies often sleep outside except in winter.
 - B Babies can sometimes catch diseases from sleeping outside.
 - C Sleeping outside is thought to be good for children's health.
- 6 How do Scandinavian parents react to extremely cold temperatures?
 - A Children are never left outside in temperatures lower than -10 degrees.
 - B Parents differ in the temperature limit they think is healthy.
 - C They are never concerned about the cold weather.
- 7 Susie says that the tradition of putting babies outside to sleep
 - A seems to improve the quality of their sleep.
 - B has been proved to improve children's health.
 - C will probably change in future years.

TASK 3	Question Number	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
	Answer							