

INDIRECT SPEECH: IMPERATIVES

1. Complete the statement, using the imperative of the verb.

- Martha told me _____ home before the snowstorm. (be)
- Maria says _____ the assignment for tomorrow. (write)
- The nurse told me _____ enough fluids. (drink)
- Shaun said _____ to the doctor before he gets worse. (go)
- We told our parents _____ us when they come home. (call)

2. Rewrite the following statements from Direct into Indirect speech.

- Ryan told me, "Don't scratch your back too hard."

_____.

- She says, "Go see the new Black widow movie."

_____.

- They asked us, "Clean the room before the guests arrive."

_____.

- My mom told us, "Be home before midnight"

_____.

3. Read each statement and choose the incorrect word.

- The teacher told us be home on time.

- The sign downtown said, "to pack all the emergency supplies."

- Our boss told us two deliver the report by tomorrow.

- Jenny asked to write the email by the end of the day.

INDIRECT SPEECH: SAY AND TELL

1. Complete the descriptions with the name of a natural disaster.

- _____ : A violent storm with circular winds with round shaped clouds.
- _____ : a large amount of water covering an area is usually dry.
- _____ : A long period during which there is no rain.
- _____ : A huge mass of snow and ice that falls down a mountain side.

2. Identify in the following statements if they mention the listener.

- My boss told me to carry the files to the second floor. _____
- He said not to forget to close all the windows and doors. _____
- The broadcast told us to stay home until the storm goes through the city. _____
- The article said the influenza had caused more than 2000 deaths. _____

3. Rewrite the each of the statements into an indirect speech.

- They said, "the storm is the worst in modern history."

_____.

- My mother told me, "Your bedroom is a mess."

_____.

- He said, "you can go out and play after lunch."

_____.

- She said, "the storm has done a lot of damage."

_____.

- I told my family, "I will get the money to pay the rent."

_____.

4. Rewrite the previous statements using "that"

- _____.
- _____.
- _____.
- _____.
- _____.