

Modal verbs of obligation or necessity

1. Choose the correct verb:

- a. You must / don't have to be quiet when you are taking an exam.
- b. We mustn't / don't have to drink this water or we'll get ill.
- c. Sam and Bob have to / don't have to read if they want good marks.
- d. The doctor said I must / mustn't take this medicine every day.
- e. Peter has to / mustn't buy a new pen for school. He needs it.

2. Complete the sentences with have to / must / don't have to and mustn't:

- Miss Sarah, _____ I _____ copy the exercise?
- You are ill. You _____ phone the doctor and go to bed.
- We _____ watch that film if we don't want to.
- Be quiet! You _____ speak when you're taking an exam.
- She _____ wear trainers if she hasn't got any.

Modal verbs of certainty or uncertainty

1. Choose MUST, CAN'T or MIGHT

1 I'm sure María hasn't left - I can see her car next to mine.

She _____ be here. I can see her car next to mine.

2 They're visiting me today, but I don't know the time.

They _____ be arriving soon.

3 We're not sure we're going to pass the exam. We haven't studied very much.

We _____ pass the exam. We haven't studied very much.

4 I'm going to participate in a contest. There's a chance I'll win!

I _____ win the competition.

5 I'm sure she hasn't done her homework. She hasn't had time.

She _____ have done her homework.

6 My snack isn't in my school bag so I'm sure I left it at home.

My snack isn't in my bag so I _____ have left it at home.

7 Someone told me that Balma was ill but I saw her yesterday so I'm sure she's ok.

Balma _____ be feeling better.

8 Did you pass the driving test ? Congratulations! I'm sure you're happy.

Did you pass the driving test? Congratulations! You _____ be happy.

9 The teacher told me I had to prepare a topic, but I'm not sure I'll have time today.

I _____ be able to prepare it if I have time.

10 They asked their classmate to send them the homework as soon as possible;

They _____ do it if he sends it soon.