TYPES OF FORESTS

EXERCISE 1: Write the names of these animals and select if they live in TEMPERATE FORESTS or RAINFORESTS.

TEMPERATE FORESTS

RAINFORESTS

TEMPERATE FORESTS

RAINFORESTS

TEMPERATE FORESTS

RAINFORESTS

EXERCISE 2: Read these sentences about temperate forests and rainforests and say if they are TRUE or FALSE.

- In temperate forests temperatures are hot in summer and cold in winter.

- In rainforests there are high levels of precipitation and humidity.

- In jungles temperatures are very high and it does not rain.

- Deciduous trees do not lose their leaves in winter and stay green all the year.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

EXERCISE 3: Drag the words form the word bank to complete the sentences.

snakes	evergreen	nutrients	racoons	arthropods	fresh	tarantulas

a) Temperate forests are the habitat of many different species. For example, mammals (_____), birds (robins) and _____ (butterflies).

b) In rainforests trees are _____ because they do not lose their leaves in winter.

c) In temperate forests the air is very _____ and the soil is full of _____.

d) Tropical jungles are home to dangerous and poisonous animals like _____ and _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS