Correct the email. Some sentences are correct.

Hi Peter, I am back from the trip to England. I hope you are good. When do you return? I want show you some things I bought there. I stayed with a british family to improve my english. They have a children. The name of the father is Kevin. They talked with me all the day. They even lended me their car. I improved a lot my English. I had a problem with my luggage in the airport. Fortunate we solved it fast. If not, I would have had to buy new clothes and that's expensive! The family house is very big because It has ten bedrooms. There have a big patio for barbeque. I enjoyed my stayed with them, and I learned much things with they. I couldn't found a better place to go. We should to visit them again next summer. We visited the grandmother's house for to meet the aunt and uncle. Sue and Jim are married for ten years. They have two childrens. The mother cooks very good. She has a short, blond hair like my mom. The others sons were going to school so I didn't know them. We couldn't meet nobody else in the family because they lives far away. I am very lucky that didn't have to take out money from my saves. I worked for earn money in the trip. When I arrived to at home, my mother was waiting for me with a huge pizza.
