1.-How often do you have an earthquake in Chile?

Chile is a well known country as having earthquakes. Every time there is an earthquake people get very scared and the sometimes run away. Twice a year there is a study about how often the earthquakes happen in Chile we can say that they happen once a year .

2.- How often is there a tsunami in Dichato?

It is totally uncertain to say that there is always a tsunami in Dichato, because that is not true. It is also not true to say that they never have a tsunami. A tsunami usually happens in Dichato , specially after a 8.8 earthquake.

3.-How often is there a Tornado in Valparaíso?

In Valparaíso it is rarely thought that we are going to have a tornado. Actually hardly ever we have had one. So we can say that there is never a tornado in Valparaíso.

4.-How often is there a flood in Miami ?

Miami is well known as a city that is has a lot of rain. Sometimes the day is sunny and rainy at the same time because Miami is a tropical city. It is hardly ever cold and they don't have snow. The problem in Miami that the ocean is so close to the houses that when it rains it is always a flood.

5.-How often is there a hurricane in Los Angeles California?

In Los Angeles California It is normally thought that there are Hurricanes, however it is not real, They rarely prepared for hurricanes. Actually they not often have Hurricanes.

6.- How often is there a volcano eruption in Villarica?

Villarica is one of those places that he has a volcano ,people think that has never been an eruption , people are always worried about if there is going to be a volcano eruption but actually there are usually volcano eruptions

7.- How often is there a drought in the V of Valparaíso?

In the region of Valparaiso people said that they're rarely a drought which is actually not truth and some people say that it is usually but actually what happens in Valparaiso. It is that Sometimes there is a drought because it doesn't rain for long periods of time and it's really complicated for the agriculture.

8.- How often is there an avalanche in The Andes?

In The Andes in Santiago de Chile it's really interesting to see that they some avalanches once in a while let's say the weather there is not really cold or warm so that makes avalanche happen once a month it is complicated for people who actually practice sports in there.
