

DEVELOPMENT OF AGRICULTURE WORKSHEET TOPIC 3

Name: _____

Date: _____ Class: _____

/10

1. CHOOSE TRUE OR FALSE.

- About 12000 years ago, the development of agriculture changed the way humans lived.
- They changed a nomadic hunter-gatherer lifestyle for a permanent settlement and farming.
- Agriculture was developed during the Neolithic period.
- At the end of the last ice age climate conditions help plants to grow naturally.

TRUE FALSE

2. CHOOSE THE CORRECT INFORMATION

- The main centers of intensive development of the agriculture are:

Mesoamerica

The Fertile Crescent

The Amazon Forest

Northwest China

The Spondylus Valley

Andean America

- The reasons why the development of language represented an advantage are:

To act together

To be better communicated

To select seeds

To make jokes

To store information

To develop pictographic writing

3. ALONG WITH AGRICULTURE CAME SOME LIFESTYLE CHANGES. MATCH THEM AS IT CORRESPOND.

Production of supluses

- ⊗ Stay in a permanent settlement to take care of plantations.

Improvement of tools

- ⊗ Animal skin used to cover and provided meat.

Cultivation techniques

- ⊗ Formation of villages help to protect from predators and enemies

Domestication of animals

- ⊗ Origin of trading and food exchange

Sedentism

- ⊗ Because of health and nutrition improved and fertility increased

Housing

- ⊗ Fertilizer and Irrigation, selection of seeds, and conservation of surpluses

Population growth

- ⊗ Allowed to hunt better and made live easier

4. COMPLETE WITH THE CORRECT INFORMATION

a. textiles - tools - villages - formative - ceramics

In America agriculture was practiced in a period call _____. In this period, people live in _____, discover and develop _____, make _____, improve _____.

b. fishing - economically - domesticated - ecological floors

In Andean America some _____ animals were llamas, vicunas and guinea pigs. Also, _____ was intensively practiced in the Peruvian-Chilean coast. Andean American cultures were _____ articulated and took advantage of the different _____.

c. America - container - yuca - squash - corn - water

_____, a kind of pumpkin, was one of the first plants to be cultivated in _____. It was used as a _____ for liquids and solids specially _____. Also, _____ cultivation was spread throughout the Americas. _____ was cultivated in the humid tropical zones of the Caribbean and the Amazon basin.