Gerunds and Infinitives

Complete the following activity using Infinitive with to, without to or a gerund

1. You can ask Sam _____ (play) with you.
2. Why don't you let me_____ (help) you with your problem?
3. He always has a cup of champagne before _____ (go) to a meeting.
4. Sam can't stop _____ (listen) to heavy metal.
5. I'm so happy _____ (see) your progress.
6. You hate _____ (drive) at night.
7. She'd better _____ up (wake) early.
8. Thomas has decided _____ (get) engaged with his fiancée.
9. Is he accusing me of _____ (try) to get them back together?
10. He admitted _____ (mug) the poor man.
11. I'm thrilled _____ (listen) that you got a promotion.
12. Ana has agreed _____ (eat) a ceviche.
13. I look forward to _____ (see) your achievements.
14. You are lucky _____ (be) in the University.
15. _____ (drink) and driving is a bad idea.

LIVEWORKSHEETS