Writing a Story Beginning

How to Write a Story Beginning

1. Tell who is in the story.
2. Tell what is happening.
3. Tell when the story takes place.
4. Tell where the story happens.

The 4 W's

STEP 1…Prewriting…/Brainstorming

BEGINNING:

Who: Mrs Strachan, Tantalaya, Isaiah, Vanae

What: having fun at beach

When: on Sunday afternoon

Where: at Goodman's Bay

Problem: Isaiah can't swim;

MIDDLE: the action. Tell what happened

First…

Next…

After that…

Then…

ENDING: How does it end?

- happy or sad ending
- how was the problem solved?
- Is there a lesson you learned?

*On Sunday afternoon Mrs. Strachan was very busy at her house. She was getting ready to meet her students at the beach. They were going to have some fun. She packed some snacks, water, towel, and a beach ball in her bag. Then she got in her car and drove to Goodman's Bay Beach. When she got to the beach she met Kattalaya, Isaiah and Vanae playing in the sand.

"I hope you are ready for some fun," said Mrs Strachan.

"Our first activity will be a race in the water."

"Oh no! said Isaiah. I cannot swim."

*Complete this story. Add the middle and end.
