Yesterday morning when Sally woke up, she was happy. It was Sunday and she liked Sundays. She went downstairs and her mother made some pancakes with honey for breakfast. The weather wasn't very cold, but it was cloudy. Sally put on her jacket before she went outside. She climbed on a rock and sat there looking at the countryside.

'Well, Sally, what would you like to do today?' her mother asked. 'I want to go and see my friend Jane.' Sally said. 'Does she live near the river?' her mother asked. 'That's right. You know her father. He works at the hospital,' Sally said. Sally phoned her friend, and her mother drove her to Jane's house. When Sally arrived at the house, both girls decided to go fishing. The girls sat near the river and started fishing. Then Jane shouted, 'I think I've got a fish!' She caught the fish and took it out of the water. The fish jumped and then it was in Jane's curly brown hair! Sally laughed. 'Oh dear, now you need to wash your hair,' The fish jumped out of her hair and landed back in the river. The girls never caught any more fish. When they got back to the house. Jane's mother was making fish and chips for lunch.
