SPELLING

Adding 's' or 'es' to form the Plural

A noun names a person, place, thing, animal or idea.

A noun can be singular (one person, place or thing) or a noun can be plural (more than one person, place or thing).

Plural rules:

· To make regular nouns plural, add -s to the end.

cats

• If the singular noun ends in -s, -ss, -sh, -ch, -x, or -z, add -es at the end to make it plural.
