1 Read and choose the best name for the text.

Animal habitats An interesting photo Naughty animals

island

A habitat is the name for a place where animals and plants live. Let's look at the habitats on this island. Here there are waterfalls, mountains and caves under the ground. A big jungle grows in one part of the island. Monkeys, snakes, parrots and other animals live there. Monkeys and parrots live in trees and snakes live on the ground under rocks, but sometimes they climb up trees too.

mountain

cave

waterfall

jungle

2 Read and match.

a jungle a cave a waterfall an island a mountain

1 You can climb it. Sometimes you can see snow on the top of it.
2 It's sometimes under the ground and has a river or a lake in it. It's dark inside and bats sometimes live in it.
3 It's very hot and wet here. There are a lot of trees and plants.
4 It's a place with sea all around it.
5 It's a place where water from a river comes down onto rocks or into a lake.

LIVEWORKSHEETS