

priority queues

Name: _____

Instructions: Complete these sentences using the words on this list.

● controversial ● deter ● devised ● discriminate ● envy ● fundamental
● priority ● proposal ● protests ● queue ● remedy ● reserve

1. The architect showed us a _____ for a new building.
2. The mayor made handling crime his _____.
3. Some people _____ against immigrants.
4. She _____ a plan to earn money.
5. His _____ ideas will prevent him from being elected.
6. His new jacket was the _____ of everyone.
7. Her parents tried to _____ her from becoming a painter by telling her most artists are poor.
8. You have to know the _____ rules of grammar to write for the school paper.
9. Do you think we'll need to _____ up to get tickets?
10. The teacher ignored his _____ about having too much homework.
11. Let's call the restaurant and _____ a table.
12. Whenever she makes a mistake, she tries to _____ it.

priority queues

Name: _____

Instructions: Write the correct word in the space before its definition. There may be more than one definition for each word.

- controversial ● deter ● devise ● discriminate ● envy ● fundamental
 ● priority ● proposal ● protest ● queue ● remedy ● reserve

1. _____ ● the act of offering a suggestion.
2. _____ to invent or make (a plan, device, or solution of a problem),
● especially by a fresh application of known information; arrange; contrive.
3. _____ ● to set right or fix; restore to a proper state.
4. _____ ● to hold back or save for later use.
5. _____ the desire for someone else's possessions, advantages, or
● qualities, or the feeling of resentment or unhappiness that accompanies this feeling.
6. _____ ● the quality or condition of being earlier in time or order.
7. _____ ● to stop or discourage from some action by arousing doubt or fear.
8. _____ ● a statement or other expression of objection or dissent.
9. _____ ● subject to debate.
10. _____ ● a line, as of people, cars, or the like, especially those waiting to be served.
11. _____ ● serving as a foundation; basic; central.
12. _____ ● to judge or act toward someone on a categorical rather than individual basis (usually followed by "against").