READING Read this article and do tasks A and B	5 x 0.2 = 1 mark

So you want to be a millionaire, but have you got what is needed to be one? To find out what millionaires are really like and what motivates them, the BBC programme Mind of a Millionaire did a survey. Psychologists looked at self-made millionaires to try and understand what qualities are needed to make a million. So, what is really important to a millionaire?

The answer, not surprisingly, is money. A. _____ And if you give a millionaire money, they won´t spend it, they´ll invest it to make more money. But you don´t have to be born rich to be a millionaire. Most millionaires come from relatively poor backgrounds. And you don´t have to work hard at school either. B. _____ However, you must have a good idea of what you want to do (get rich) and you really should start early. A lot of millionaires left school early, to start their own businesses.

If you want to be a millionaire, not only do you have to work hard but you should enjoy your work. C. _____ Having a good work-life balance is fine for people who only want to be moderately successful. But if you´re really ambitious, you have to put in the hours.

What are millionaires like as people? The survey found they are competitive. They like taking risks and they´re aggressive and self-confident. They´ll do anything they can to get what they want.

So you want to be a millionaire, but have you got what is needed?
