

THE SAME AS, SIMILAR TO, DIFFERENT FROM, LIKE, AND ALIKE

A. We use “The Same” and “The Same . . . As” to say that things are equal.

J.P. has a black 2016 Toyota. Nancy has a black 2016 Toyota.

*J.P.’s car is the same color as Nancy’s.

*J.P.’s car is the same year as Nancy’s car.

*Their cars are the same.

B. We use “Like” and “Alike” to say that things are the same or almost the same.

Like and alike are used in different structures.

J.P.’s car is like Nancy’s car.

(noun) (be + like) (noun)

J.P.’s car and Nancy’s car are alike.

(noun) (noun) (verb + alike)

C. We use “similar” and “similar to” to say that things are different in small ways.

Tobin has a little Chevy and Will has a little Golf.

*Will’s car is similar to Tobin’s car.

*Will and Tobin’s cars are similar.

D. We use “different” and “different from” when things are not at all equal.

Jessica has a green Honda. Jennifer has a red Ford.

*Jessica’s car is different from Jennifer’s car.

*Jessica and Jennifer’s cars are different.

Circle the correct comparison word.

- Steve and Kristen live in the town of Milwaukie.
Steve lives in (the same town / the same town as) Jane.
- They both live in (the same / the same as) town.
- Steve and Kristen were born in Milwaukie and have lived there all of their lives.
Steve talks (like / alike) Kristen.
- Steve and Kristen talk (like / alike).
- Jonathan is Steve’s brother. He lives in the town of Gladstone.
Jonathan lives in a (different / different from) town.
- Steve and Jonathan live in (different / different from) towns.
- Steve looks (like / alike) Jonathan.
- Steve and Jonathan look (like / alike).
- Steve’s truck is (similar / similar to) Jonathan’s truck.
- Steve and Jonathan’s trucks are (similar / similar to).
- Steve is a mechanic. Jonathan is an engineer.

Steve's job is (different / different from) Jonathan's.