

Science

Risk Factors to Our Health

	treated	sanitation	covered
	safe	micro-organisms	store
germs	wash	diarrhea	contaminated

1. Food poisoning is an illness that results in vomiting and/ or _____.
2. We must always _____ our hands before we touch food.
3. Using unclean toilets and not cleaning up after yourself is poor_____.
4. You should always keep your garbage bin _____ and replace the bag when it is full.
5. It is very important to _____ food properly so that it does not get contaminated.
6. We should not use water for drinking or cooking that has not been properly
_____.
7. When water is _____ that means that it is unsafe for drinking.
8. We can prevent food poisoning by not allowing _____ to get in our food and drinks.

9. It is important that the food we eat and the water we drink are _____.
10. If germs such as harmful _____ get into our food, we may get food poisoning.