

Identifying and writing four kinds of sentences

There are four kinds of sentences. each one does something different.

*A declarative sentence tells something. It is a statement and ends with a period.

*An interrogative sentence asks something. It is a question and ends with a question mark.

*An imperative sentence tells someone to do something. It is a command and ends with a period.

*An exclamatory sentence shows strong feeling. It is an exclamation and ends with an exclamation mark.

Read each sentence and write the type of sentence. "D" for declarative, "I" for Imperative, "E" for exclamatory, and "Q" for interrogative.

1.- I like to eat apples, apples are my favorite fruit.
2.- Why did you to the doctor?
3.- Stop shouting!
4.- Ouch, I hurt my leg!
5.- Close that door right away.
6.- We want to play soccer during recess.
7.- Are you going to do the homework today?
8.- We won the game!
9.- Where are my books?
10.- The sky is full of stars tonight.
11.- My dog is very sweet.
12.- Please sit down.

Add the punctuation marks to make the sentences correct.

1.- Who wants to go to Six Flags
2.- You can do it
3.- Take off the sweater, please
4.- I would like to go to the beach
5.- This is the best chocolate cake I've ever baked
6.- Where are you going
7.- I went to visit my grandma last weekend
8.- Stop A car is coming.
9.- How can you solve that problem
10.- What is your name

Write an example for each sentence.

Declarative (statement)
Imperative (command)
Exclamatory (Exclamation)
Interrogative (Question)	