

1 Complete the dialogue extracts with the correct form of the verbs below.

disable enter make save send text top up

A Ben

I went abroad last month to Italy. I ¹ my mobile before I left with €40. I didn't ² data roaming while I was away, and I ³ lots of calls. I checked my balance when I got back and found I'd been charged €30!

B Emma

I'll ⁴ you a text and you can ⁵ my number to your phone book. Then, when you want to ring or ⁶ me, you won't have to ⁷ the number.

call leave listen to lose put put recharge

C Ryan

I phoned Tom, but he must have ⁸ his phone on silent, so he didn't answer. I ⁹ a message, so hopefully he'll ¹⁰ his voicemail later.

D Zoe

Hi, Sally, we're on the train. I've ¹¹ the phone on loudspeaker so that Mike can speak to you too ... No, it won't annoy the other passengers! ... Oh, the train is about to go into a tunnel and I think we'll ¹² the signal ... Can you hear me? ... OK, listen, I'm running out of charge too, I need to ¹³ the battery. I'll hang up now and ¹⁴ you later ... Bye.

Vocabulary

1 Complete the sentences with the verbs below.

add enable leave lose make put recharge top up

1 Can I use your phone, please? I need to a call.

2 We're supposed to our phones on silent when we're in class.

3 You'll have to data roaming if you want to make calls from abroad.

4 Tell me your number and I'll it to my contacts list.

5 I need to my phone because I haven't got much credit left.

6 Sam's not here. Would you like to a message?

7 My battery has run out. Where can I my phone?

8 This village is very remote, so you might the signal.