

Name: _____ Date: _____

PART 2

SOCIAL SCIENCE

UNIT 1: WHICH WAY IS NORTH?

1. Read and complete:

The _____ of a map allows us to calculate the real distance between two places

HOW FAR IS YOUR SCHOOL FROM HOME?

_____ show a lot of detail. On this map, 1 centimetre represents 250 metres in real life

Use a ruler to calculate the real distance between the Puerta de Alcalá and the Templo de Debod in Madrid

Real Distance:
250 x _____ = _____

A map has a scale of 1cm = 2 Km
The distance on the map between the school and the park is 3cm
What is the real distance?
 $250 \times 3 = 750m$

_____ show little detail. On this map, 1 centimetre represents 100 kilometres in real life.

Calculate the real distance between Barcelona and Córdoba

Real Distance:
100 x _____ = _____ Km

What can you see on large-scale map that you cannot see on a small-scale map?

HOW FAR IS YOUR SCHOOL FROM HOME?

Teacher Laura

maps

1cm represents 100 Kilometres in real life

detail

small geographic extent

maps

1cm represents 250 metres in real life

a detail

Used to show neighbourhoods or small towns

What can you see on a large-scale map that you cannot see in a small-scale map?

Large-scale maps show greater amount of detail such as hotels, museums or shops

Let's recap!

maps

Types

Political maps

Physical maps

Street maps

Elements

Compass rose

Scale

Key

Symbols

always point north

shows an urban space

are political boundary between countries

Types of maps

Large-scale maps

show a lot of detail

Small-scale maps

show little detail

GOOD LUCK

