

1. Complete the sentences with words formed from the words in the box.

intelligent ~~talent~~ fame success skill create strong

To become a star, you have to be talented.

- 1 You need to be technically _____ to become a sound engineer.
- 2 I admire him for his _____ of character.
- 3 Have you ever met a _____ person?
- 4 Her new album is incredibly _____ because it got brilliant reviews.
- 5 _____ isn't the most important quality for a pop star!
- 6 Eliza is incredibly _____. She always has original ideas.

2. Complete the words that describe star qualities... adjectives

She's very hard-working. She always gives 100%.

- 1 Sam's great at singing and dancing. He's very t_____.
- 2 Lisa's very c_____. She has lots of new and original ideas.
- 3 She wears designer clothes and is very s_____.
- 4 Toby's so e_____. He behaves as if he's the most important person around.
- 5 To become a star, you need a lot of l_____.
- 6 She's one of the most f_____ actresses in the world.
- 7 Mike's very clever. He's possibly the most i_____ person I know.
- 8 Debbie's very i_____. Next summer she's going to travel to the USA on her own.

3. Write complete sentences using the present perfect. Put just, still, yet or already in the correct position.

you / have / lunch? (yet). Have you had lunch yet?

- 1 they / fly / back from Italy (just) _____
- 2 Joe / not tidy / his room (yet). _____
- 3 Suzy / not buy / their wedding present (still) _____
- 4 we / get / our tickets for the concert (already). _____
- 5 Guess what? I / just / see / Brad Pitt! (just) _____

4. Rewrite the sentences using the present perfect simple.

I did my homework. - I have done my homework.

- 1 I bought my camera ages ago. _____
- 2 I played the guitar two times. _____
- 3 We went to the UK many times. _____