Transformation of Sentences

Positive Sentences to Negative Sentences

Rule 1: We can change positive sentences to negative sentences by adding not after the verbs am, is, are and were.
Rule 2: We can change positive sentences to negative sentences by adding not between the helping verb and the main verb.
Rule 3: The sentences in simple present or simple past tenses are changed to negative sentences, by adding do/does/did along with not in front of the main verb.
