Look at these examples (they all mean the same thing), then choose after or after that to complete the rules.

- First she went to university. Then she travelled round the world.
- After she went to university, she travelled round the world.
- She travelled round the world after she went to university.
- She went to university. After that, she travelled round the world.

We use _____ to put the two events into one sentence. It is used with the event which happens first, but can be at the beginning or in the middle of the sentence.

We usually use _____ at the beginning of the second sentence to introduce the second event.

Write after or after that to complete the sentences.

---

1. I did all the washing up. [...] I had a cup of tea.
2. [...] she got married, she didn't change her name.
3. Let's go to a restaurant [...] the film.
4. We went shopping. [...] we went bowling.
5. [...] the holiday, I felt a bit sad.
6. [...] the fight, he said sorry.
7. My children can only watch TV [...] they've done their homework.
8. I was sick for 3 days. [...] I felt very weak.
9. When he told me the truth, I didn't mind at first, but [...] I felt really angry.
10. I had a shower. Then I got dressed [...] I had brushed my teeth.

LIVEWORKSHEETS