I was ask to report to the office the next morning. Never having attended an interview before, I took pains to make a better impression. Next morning, after anyone had woken up, I sneaked out in my hest clothes. I did not want to be teased about mine appearance. I walked into the office at 8.45a.m. to be on time from the interview. After I had told the receptionist who I was so why I was there, she pointed to a door. She said I could start working today and that my desk was in the room. Greatly puzzled,I asked her about the interviews I was supposed to attend. She explained that I was to be here for only a month. Then she told me smilingly to wear shoes the next day.
