GRACE VALLEY INDIAN SCHOOL

My feelings and how can I express it?

These kids are queueing up for the next rollercoaster ride, how are the feeling? Match the child to the correct speech bubble.

I am sad because my brother doesn't want to come on the ride with me.

I am feeling angry because someone pushed in front of me in the queue!

This is my first time on a rollercoaster and this one look very high.

This is my second time on the rollercoaster so I know there's nothing to be scared of.

I'm feeling happy because I love rollercoasters. I have also reached the front of the queue!
