Vocabulary note

We say something/someone has a / is a good/bad/positive or negative influence on someone/something: John's new friends are a really bad influence on him. Influence can be a verb or a noun: The media influences the way many people think. The media has a major influence on the way many people think.

Remember that effect is a noun and affect is a verb. These can be used in a similar way to influence: The media affects the way many people think. The media has a major effect on the way many people think.

Error warning!

We say on the radio, on television, on screen, on the computer, on the Internet. We use in with printed media: We learn all about celebrities in magazines or on television. NOT in magazines or television. These materials are freely available on the Internet. NOT in the Internet.

3.1 These adjectives can be used to talk about the media or people in the media. Decide whether they are used in a negative or a positive way and put them in the correct box.

artificial biased distorted factual informative invasive intrusive pervasive realistic sensationalist superficial unbiased attention-grabbing

Positive	Negative

3.2 Think about your answers to these questions. Try to use as many of the adjectives from 3.1 as you can.

- Would you like to be famous? (Why? / Why not?)
- Do you think famous people have a positive or a negative influence on young people?
- Nowadays we have access to the news 24 hours a day. What effect does this have?

3.3 Complete these answers to the questions in 3.2 with a suitable word or phrase. Then listen and check your answers.

- I think a lot of people want to be famous nowadays and that's why reality TV is so popular. But I wouldn't like to be famous at all. Being famous nowadays simply means that you're in the ¹t..... a lot and you're followed by the ²p..... everywhere you go. I'd find that very ³i..... . Famous people have no ⁴p..... at all in any part of their life. Their life also seems to be very ⁵s..... because they spend all of their time going to parties and trying to look glamorous. It all seems very ⁶a..... to me – they just don't seem to be part of the real world at all.
- I think they should have a positive ⁷i..... on young people, but many of them don't. Some personalities are good role models and use their ⁸c..... status to encourage people to think about important issues, but we often see photos of famous people behaving badly.
- I think it can ⁹a..... us in both positive and negative ways. On the one hand, it's very convenient to be able to catch up with what's happening in the world at any time of the day or night, no matter where you are. But on the other hand, this kind of news can give you a ¹⁰d..... view of what's happening, because even minor news ¹¹s..... are given more importance than they perhaps should have.

4.1 PRONUNCIATION Which of the following sounds do these words have: s (stop), z (zoo), ʒ (Asia) or ʃ (shop)?

artificial ... ʃ ...	censor	intrusive	invasive attention	exposed	intrusion	publication
biased	exposure	invasion	superficial

4.2 Now listen and practise saying the words.
