Working with reading (& listening) text

The following are some possible stages of a text-based lesson.
Can you put them into a logical order?

Collecting & comparing (different) answers

Noticing interesting lexis / grammar in the text (collocations)

Processing the text for meaning

Summarising the text

Exploring & clarifying the new lexis / grammar

Discussing the topic of the text

Responding to the text (naturally)

Priming the text to establish context & genre

Experimenting with the new lexis / grammar

Setting the task(s) – how & how not to read (listen)
