Reported Speech

Finish the sentences using Reported speech.

To transform a sentence in the present form, for example:
Mark: I eat cereal every morning.

First, we have to start with the subject and make clear that we are reporting the sentence, by adding the "said":
Mark said ...

Then, we proceed to transform the sentence to the past form, since the sentence was uttered somewhere before:
Mark said he ate cereal every morning.

- Helen: "I speak English and Spanish."

Helen said (that) _____.

- Ken: "Joy often reads comics."

Ken said (that) _____

- Harry and Marie: "We go swimming in the lake."

Harry and Marie _____.

- Madison: "I'm tired."

Madison _____.

- Amy: "The boys always wear jeans."

Amy _____.

- Oliver and Noah: "Our smartphones don't work."

Oliver and Noah _____.

- Lisa: "Alan sometimes meets friends."

Lisa _____.

- Andrew: "I really love my moped."

_____.

- Nick: "You have a fast car."

_____.

- Josie: "Your dogs are cute."

_____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS