$\mathbf{E}\mathbf{L}$	F3:	LESSON 104	LANGUAGE	AWARENESS) - Part	1

THEME: People and Culture TOPIC: Units 11 Lessons to Learn - Gerund and Infinitive Close-Up Student's Book, p.143 FYI Gerund = a form of verb that ends in -ing that is used Infinitive as a noun. It looks like a verb, but it acts like a noun. Full infinitive = usually begins with the word Example: 'to' and is followed by the base form of a verb. Bare infinitive = base form of verb without the Baking is my hobby. word 'to' (name of an activity = noun) Example: Mother is baking a cake for my birthday. I will lock the door to prevent theft. $(an\ action = verb)$ Everyone must bring their own lunch.

_			A
Ge	rund	5	Answer:
	Look at the gerunds in bold in these sentences. How are gerunds formed? John is interested in studying biology. The teacher avoids shouting at students. It isn't worth revising all night for a test. She loves swimming. E Surfing the Net is his favourite pastime.
B	B Read the sentences in A again and answer the questions below. Which sentence(s) include(s) an example of 1 a gerund after a verb or phrase? 2 a gerund after a preposition? 3 a gerund used as the subject of a sentence?
	4 a gerund used as the object of a sentence?
Inf	initi	/es	Answer:
C		the sentences. What do the words in all have in common?	They are all infinitives.
	 1 He was too busy to go out. 2 James wants to become an engineer. 3 They went to the exhibition to see the latest inventions. 4 Jenny was very happy to finish university this year.

Match the sentences in C with the uses of the full infinitive below. We use the full infinitive a to express purpose. b after adjectives such as afraid, scared, happy, glad, sad, etc. c after the words too and enough. d after certain verbs and phrases.
Read these sentences and write the bare infinitives in the boxes given at the end of the sentences.
1 She must do a seminar on language teaching. 2 He can't decide what to study at university. 3 I would rather go out than stay in tonight. 4 We had better be careful when using this machine.
F Complete the rule.
We use bare infinitives after verbs and the phrases and Gerund or Infinitive?
G Read the sentences and underline the gerund and full infinitives.
a Scientists have begun to research new ways of communication.
Scientists have begun researching new ways of b The teacher stopped to write on the board.
The teacher stopped writing on the board.
Gerund Full infinitives
a.
b.

Н	Read the sentences in G again. In which pair of sentences does the meaning of the sentences 1 stay the same? 2 change?
1	Look at the full infinitive and the gerund in bold in these sentences and answer the questions below.
 a Sam remembered calling his professor. b Sam remembered to call his professor.
	In which sentence did Sam
	1 first remember something and then an event happened?
	2 remember an event after it happened?

Read the notes in your Close-Up Student's Book to find out more about gerund and infinitive

★ Grammar Focus pp.171 & 172 (11.2 to 11.6)

Complete the text with the gerund or the correct form of the infinitive of the verbs in brackets.
lature as a blackboard buld you like (1) (go) to a school that doesn't pect students (2) (be) in class all day? What udent wouldn't enjoy (3) (attend) such a school it existed?
Well, at Southern Cross School near South Africa's famous Kruger Lational Park, you can (4) (teach) students the importance for the natural environment and the s a School for the Planet'.

K Choose the correct words.

- 1 Some students can't afford going / to go to university.
- 2 I don't feel like to study / studying when the weather is warm.
- 3 Jason was glad to learn / learning that he had passed his exams.
- 4 She'd better get / to get some advice on her studies.
- 5 It's no use staying / to stay up all night studying.
- 6 Teachers should be prepared to answer / answering students' questions.
- 7 The children are too young attending / to attend these classes.
- 8 Is she interested in train / training to become a photographer?

