Now it's your turn!

Section 1

1) countable How many (numbers, some, a little, a lot)----------non-countable how much (some, a little, a lot)

Countable	Non-Countable
How many?	How much?
A few, many, a lot, many	Some, a little, much, a lot
1, 2, 3, 4, 5....

1. I would like three much eggs.
2. I have much many ducks.
3. I can see a few a lot of rice.
4. She has much ten aunts.
5. He wants a few a little juice.

Section 2

1. How many much onions do you want?

I want three much onions.

2. How many much water do we need?

We are all out of water. We need a few many a lot.

3. How many much milk do we need.

We have one gallon, so not many much.

4. How many much ducks do you have?

Not many much, just two.

5. Can you please buy some much water? We are all out.

Sure. I can buy a few a little.

Section 3 Do you need/Is there/ are there/ any/some

1. Is there a few any juice in the refrigerator? Yes. We have some much.
2. Are there any ducks in the lake? Yes. Not many much. Just a little few.
3. Is there any rice left? Yes. We have a few a little.
4. The cat is thirsty. I think she wants five some milk. Okay. I will get her some few.
5. I think we are out of juice. Can you buy a few a little? Sure. I can buy some five.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Section 4

1. We need to buy a few some bottles of water. Okay. How much many? About a dozen bottles.

2. Do we have any rice? We have five some bags of rice. Can you please buy much three more bags?

3. Would you like a cup of tea? Yes. I would like a little a cup of tea.

4. Should we buy coffee? We are out. Yes. We need some much three bags of coffee.

5. The cat is thirsty. Can you please give it much bowl a bowl a few bowl of milk.

LIVEWORKSHEETS