

I sometimes make little ornaments for the house on Halloween day, but never anything useful/used.

The Russians always disunderstand/misunderstand my love to creepy Halloween costumes.

I can cook a few Halloween treats but I'm not very adventural/adventurous.

I'm too disorganised/misorganised to plan anything big, like a real Halloween quest, but people sometimes come to the house and we have a great time playing fun pranks on each other.

I'm not musicous/musical at all. When I sing "Maneater" by Miley Cyrus wolves howl in solidarity.

I have to miswrite/rewrite my spooky story for the midnight society, but I do like creating fiction.
