Third, the new couple plan to have a baby in two years' time. When the little princess or prince comes out, the then grandma and granpa will help with childcare, something they keep saying they always look forward to doing. As Loan plans to have a short maternity leave, and get back to work soon afterwards, the grandparents will take care of child-minding.

Regarding the relationship with the in-laws, Loan does not find it a big problem. On the contrary, she enjoys living in an extended family. Dinner time is particularly exciting when they discuss the news in the media and the two generations will give arguments.
