

Conjunctions

Fill in the blanks with the correct conjunctions.

We can join two independent clauses to form a sentence using a conjunction.

Conjunctions include: for, and, but, or, yet, so.

1. I am a wife _____ a mother.

2. She wants to go to bed early _____ she is tired.

3. My grandfather is old, _____ he is active in sports.

4. I can eat the pizza right now _____ I can save it for later.

5. Kamini needed some new clothing _____ she went shopping.

6. He never drives to work, _____ he sometimes drives to the mall.

7. She put on a sweater _____ she was feeling cold.

8. Susan thinks she should stay home _____ her mother would be very angry.

9. Encik Hakimi drove to visit his friend _____ relatives.

10. The restaurant has limited food choices, _____ many people still go there.