

Modal verbs can and should

What can I do in Mexico City?

You can go to outdoor markets.

You can't visit some museums on Mondays.

What should I see there?

You should visit the Palace of Fine Arts.

You shouldn't miss the Museum of Modern Art.

A Complete these conversations using can, can't, should, or shouldn't.
Then practice with a partner.

- A: I ..... decide where to go on my vacation.
B: You ..... go to India. It's my favorite place to visit.
- A: I'm planning to go to Bogotá next year. When do you think I ..... go?
B: You ..... go anytime. The weather is nice almost all year.
- A: ..... I rent a car when I arrive in Cairo? What do you recommend?
B: No, you ..... definitely use the subway. It's fast and efficient.
- A: Where ..... I get some nice jewelry in Bangkok?
B: You ..... miss the weekend market. It's the best place for bargains.
- A: What ..... I see from the Eiffel Tower?
B: You ..... see all of Paris, but in bad weather, you ..... see anything.