

DIARY ENTRY USING FUTURE TENSES

DATE

3/11/2020

TEACHER DIANA'S CLASS

NAME: _____

INSTRUCTIONS:

LISTEN TO THE AUDIO AND COMPLETE THE MISSING WORDS OR PHRASES. AFTER THAT, ANSWER THE QUESTIONS.

Dear diary:

I am really looking forward to next semester! Let me tell you all about it. In December _____ (host) our annual Christmas party, where everyone brings something to eat and drink. I _____ a Christmas punch with fruit, and a sweet potato salad, they _____ love it! The event _____ (hold) in the school's cafeteria, so we _____ have to worry about cleaning up a huge mess in our home.

By December, I _____ German for three years, so I think it's time to prepare for the proficiency test that _____ in early January. If I pass this test, I _____ to apply to a scholarship in Germany, isn't that exciting?

By _____ next semester, _____ to in-person classes, which is something that makes me happy because it means that the pandemic situation _____ (improve), being in virtual classes is not as fun as when we come to school and spend time with my friends.

Another thing that I am looking forward to is that by the end of next year _____ high school, which means that I get to go to university! I have finally decided what I want to study. I _____ study architecture; I think _____ be good at it.

That is all I have for you today. _____ tomorrow!

Love, Stephy.

Answer the following questions with complete sentences:

1. When is the annual Christmas party being hosted?
2. Where will the Christmas party be held?
3. By the end of next semester, how long will Stephy have been studying German?
4. When does the German proficiency test start?
5. What does Stephy think about her sweet potato salad and fruit punch?
6. What will happen if she passes the German test? (conditional)
7. Why does Stephy think that by the end of the semester the pandemic situation will have been improving?
8. When will she have finished high school?
9. What is she going to study?