

Name: _____ Grade: _____

Disposal of Fullness

Section a Fill in the blank spaces.

1. _____ is a triangular fold found on garments.
2. _____ are soft folds of fabric formed by pulling up basting stitches to make the fabric fit into a smaller space.
3. _____ are fine narrow fold of about 0.25 cm sewn from top to bottom.
4. Disposing of fullness is done to give _____ to a garment.
5. The folds in a garment done on the waistline of skirts and stitched into place across the top is known as _____.
6. _____ is used when one edge of the fabric is only slightly larger than the other.

Section B True/False

1. _____ There are only three methods used to dispose of fullness in a garment.
2. _____ When stitching a dart, you should start from the broad edge of the dart and move towards of the tip of the dart.
3. _____ Three types of pleats are box pleat, kick pleat and accordion pleat.
4. _____ Easing should create visible folds similar to gathers.
5. _____ Tucks should be evenly spaced.

Section C Name the methods pictured to control fullness in a garment.