

THE GIRL WHO CHANGED A NATION

1. Read about Mafalda.

Mafalda: The girl who changed a nation

Mafalda is an Argentinean cartoon character created by Quino in 1964. The stories of each comic strip are full of a girl's curiosity and innocence that makes adults realize their errors and become aware of the world's problems. Before the appearance of Mafalda on television, the comic strips were published in local newspapers until the cartoonist stopped making the series.

2. Answer the following questions

a. What is the Mafalda cartoon about? Select the correct statements.

¿De qué trata la caricatura de Mafalda? Seleccione las declaraciones correctas

Quino's curiosity and cartoons

A girl's curiosity and innocence

Become aware of the world's problems and the newspapers

Make adults be aware of their mistakes and the world's problems.

b. Where is she from? - ¿De dónde es ella?

Brazilian

Argentinian

Ecuadorian

c. Who created her? - ¿Quién la creó?

Quino

Marvel

Stan Lee

d. When was she created? - ¿Cuándo fue creada?

1984

1974

1964

e. Where were the comic strips published before TV?

¿Dónde se publicaron las historietas antes de la televisión?

Radio

Newspapers

Internet

f. Have you seen it? - ¿Lo has visto?

Yes, I have

No, I haven't

Don't go!
I promise to have the soup!

