Karin: I'm so happy we're together again. This Christmas is special.

Ben: Yes, welcome home aunt Fanny.

Fanny: Thank you. I'm glad I'm here with you. My dear Ben, I missed our talks.

Ben: Oh, aunt Fanny.

Fanny: This celebration is lovely. I guess some things haven't changed since my last visit.

Ben: Yeah! You know, now I'm in charge of the housework. I do it every day, even today before the celebration.

Fanny: Wow! That's a surprise. And that cake smells so good

Ben: My dad made it. He makes cakes once a month or on special days.

Fanny: He's a good chef, and he loves desserts.

Ben: In the morning, we were in a rush. My mom did the shopping; but she forgot some ingredients for dinner. She always does the shopping for the family.

Fanny: And where is your sister?

Ben: She's coming. She always has a Christmas party with her class. She'll be here in a while.
