SCIENCE GRADE 5

1. Matter is anything that:
A. occupies space
B. is important
C. has mass
D. A and C

2. The _____ is the base unit of mass in the metric system.
A. metre
B. gram
C. litre
D.kilogram

3. The law of conservation says that the amount of matter stays the _____, even when matter changes form.
A. same
B. changes
C. increases
D. decreases

4. An apple that is cut into pieces will weigh less than when it is whole.
A. true
B. false

5. The law of conservation of mass states that the parts of an object will have the same total mass as the whole object.
A. true
B. false

LIVEWORKSHEETS