

VOCABULARY:

1. Match a word on the left with its correct meaning on the right.

Type the letter of its meaning in the open spaces on the left.

_____ to honour	a. when people are hurting other people because they disagree [agree (yes) disagree (no)]
_____ fighting	b. to show respect to another person
_____ courage	c. a place where dead people are buried
_____ a cemetery	d. the ability to face something that is scary or new to you
_____ a battle	e. a person who used to be a soldier
_____ a veteran	f. a mi-li-ta-ry fight between groups of soldiers

Answer the questions on the next page, with the words (vocabulary) of question 1.

2. Use the words of question 1 to finish these sentences:

1. We _____ my grandfather each year in our family because he was a wonderful man.

2. My children are always _____ over the remote of the TV!

3. My great-grandparents are buried in a _____.

4. Dogs have a lot of _____. They bark to protect their owners.

5. _____ are honoured on Remembrance Day.

6. Who is someone you honour in your family?

7. Do you know someone who has courage? (Do you know someone who is cou-ra-ge-ous?)

3. in / at / on - which preposition do you choose?

in	morning, afternoon, evening
	days and dates
	clock time and other times

on	days and dates
-----------	----------------

at	clock time and other time
-----------	------------------------------

November 11th is Remembrance Day _____ Canada. It is a day when our country honours the men and women who died fighting _____ wars.

Remembrance Day began after World War I. WWI ended _____ November 11th , 1918, and the fighting ended _____ 11:00 AM that day. The day and time are important because the war ended _____ the eleventh hour, _____ the eleventh day, _____ the eleventh month.

in	morning, afternoon, evening
	days and dates
	clock time and other times

on	days and dates
-----------	----------------

at	clock time and other time
-----------	------------------------------

Canadians wear a red poppy as a symbol of Remembrance Day. During World War I, a Canadian army doctor named John McCrae wrote a poem about a big battle _____ a field _____ France with beautiful poppies. Many men died _____ this battle. This field is called Flanders Fields and is now a large cemetery or graveyard. John McCrae's poem - "In Flanders Fields" is famous.

Now _____ Remembrance Day _____ 11:00 am everyone stops what they are doing, and we are silent for one minute to remember our veterans. We are thankful for their courage during wars. This year, I hope you will stop for a moment of silence _____ November 11th to remember them, too.

from:

https://eslfreepress.typepad.com/the_esl_free_press/remembrance-day.html

adapted from:

https://files.liveworksheets.com/def_files/2020/11/5/1105220424618293/11052204246733.pdf

for larger typescript and easier reading, to help students depending on their personal phones for internet access.