1. Charles is remembering his childhood. Read and then answer the questions.

My childhood

My name is Charles and now, I am twenty-five years old and I can remember my childhood. It is full of nice memories and they are still in my mind. When I remember those days, I think I have gone back to those happy and pleasant days.

In my childhood, I used to play in the afternoon with my friends on a playground near my home. I used to play hide and seek. All my friends had to hide but one of them looked for the others. At the time of returning home, my mother used to prepare a snack and then I took a shower. I used to do my homework and study. In the evening, my father used to bring toys, balloons after work. He used to tell me stories while I was in bed.

I will never forget the memories of my childhood days until the last moment of my life.
