Giving advice – should and shouldn't

Read the following speech bubbles and choose the correct answer. Then, complete the gaps:

Rules

We use should to say it is a good / bad idea to do something.

We use shouldn't to say it is a good / bad idea to do something.

After should, I use verb without -TO / verb with -ING

Should changes / stays the same with all personal pronouns (I, you, we...)

:

Form

Affirmative: I _____ eat more healthy food, such as fruit and vegetables.

Negative: You _____ _____ (shouldn't) go to bed at midnight. You'll be very tired!

Interrogative: _____ we drink eight glasses of water every day?

Short answers: Yes, we _____. No, we _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS