

1) There are 5 boys and 2 girls.

How many children are there altogether?

$$\square + \square = \square$$

There are ----- children altogether.

2) Hasan has 4 erasers.

He buys more 3 erasers.

How many erasers does he have altogether?

$$\square + \square = \square$$

There are ----- children altogether.

3) Mum buys 3 apples, 2 oranges and 1 mango.

How many pieces of fruit does she buy in all?

$$\square + \square + \square = \square$$

There are ----- children altogether.

4) Kamila bakes 4 chocolate muffins, 3 vanilla muffins and 2 banana muffins.

How many muffins does she bake in all?

$$\square + \square + \square = \square$$

There are ----- children altogether.