Nori

My friend Nori lives in Tokyo, Japan. We play games online. I use my tablet. Our favourite game is Journey to Earth. You're aliens on the moon and you build a spaceship to travel to Earth. I was a kind alien, but Nori was very selfish! He didn't want to give me the key for my spaceship! I sometimes write to Nori because I've got his email address. Last week, he used his webcam to show me his city. He walked along the streets of Tokyo and he talked to me in English. He's got two sisters and his English is worse than theirs, but he's very confident.

Nori's city is famous and mine is too. There are lots of modern buildings in Tokyo. My city is old and small, but his is big and crowded. Yesterday, Nori's mother invited my family to Tokyo, and my parents said yes! I want to meet Nori, but I'm worried about travelling to Japan because it's a long way!

Last Friday I was sitting on the platform at Westley Station. There was nobody to talk to and I didn't have a book to read. (I had my dad's laptop, but you need a password to use it and I didn't know it. 😞) I was bored so I went to a shop in the station. I saw a magazine called My Life. It was more expensive than the other magazines, but I bought it because it had a story about Clara Wyatt, the clothes designer. I know other clothes designers are more famous than her, but I think hers are the most beautiful dresses in the world. I finished the magazine on the train, then I started talking to the woman next to me about her job. She cuts people's hair at a big hotel. We played some games together because she had some cards. Two hours later, we arrived at Park Street. When I was leaving the station, a woman said to me, 'Excuse me, is this yours?' It was Clara Wyatt with my magazine! I'm going to keep it for ever now!
