

Complete with a word or short phrase: (NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS)

The local art gallery would like to put Jamie's pictures and she feels about it.

According to Leo, the picture shows a man and a woman kissing in front of the new, the woman in the picture is wearing a beret, which reminds Leo of

This city is the place where actually started back in the 19th century thanks to a famous photographer images promoted the city as well as her work.

Jamie explains that street photography is a that captures various pictures within ideally without interfering with the atmosphere.

Christine thinks that Jamie should have a person's in order to make use of their pictures. Personally, she wouldn't like to see a of her face in an art gallery, especially if she doesn't have an appropriate look.

However, Jamie blurs out specific details on her pictures or eliminates anything that might not fit in the scene. Most of her pictures are taken, but she needs to ask permission if the picture will be used

Leo believes that street photography is an practice that has paved the way for the paparazzi culture which is dedicated to hunt, celebrities.

Even though Jamie has the right to take pictures on the street, she would them if people didn't like them and she would do this out of

Despite being given the right to take pictures by the First Amendment, Jamie doesn't use her pictures or sell them to magazines. Nevertheless, she doesn't inform people when she is about to take a picture in order not to ruin the

Leo thinks this problematic stems from the sleeker and sneakier we have access to such as and mini cameras. He considers that should be revisited and just because something was in the past doesn't mean we will always accept it.

According to Jamie, the art form of extinction, and photographers should be given an opportunity what they do and how they do it in order for society to change the way it looks at certain related to art forms.