Beasts in danger

1. Match the definitions to the type of beasts they belong to:

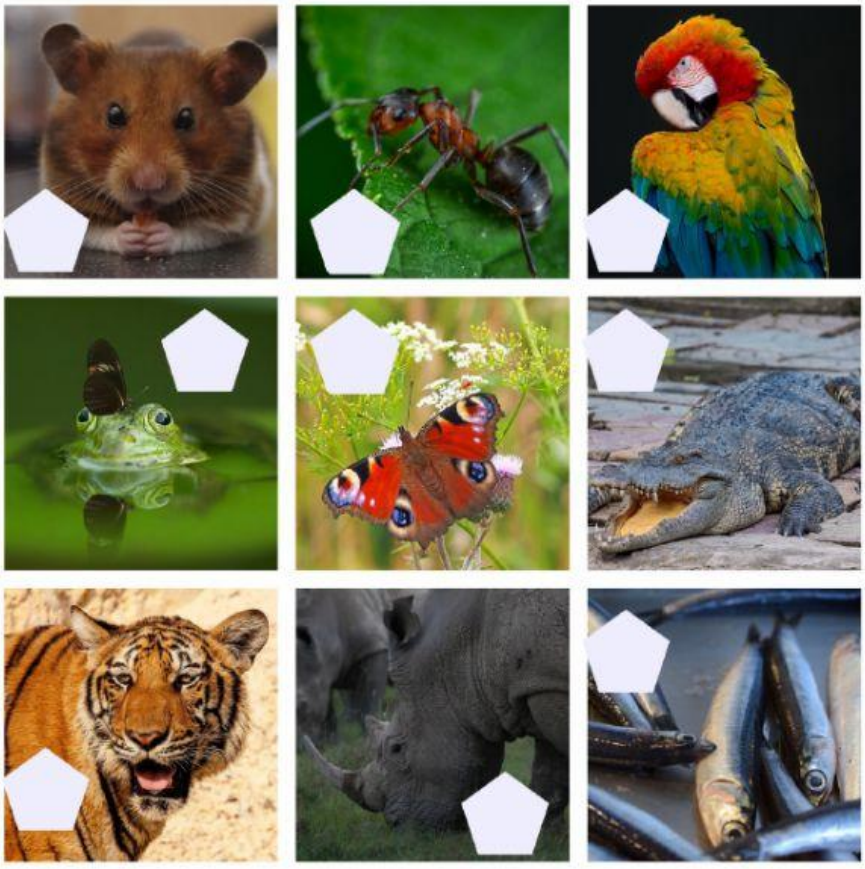

1. Mammals	a. are creatures with feathers and wings. They lay eggs. Most can fly.
2. Amphibians	b. are small animals with six legs. Most, but not all, have wings.
3. Insects	c. are animals that give birth to their babies and fed them milk.
4. Fish	d. are creatures that can live both on land and in the water.
5. Birds	e. are cold-blooded creatures with scales and they lay eggs.
6. Reptiles	f. are creatures that live in the water and have fins and a tail.

My answer:

a	b	c	d	e	f

2. Match the pictures with the types of the beast:

(1.mammal 2.amphibian 3. insect 4. fish 5. bird 6. reptile)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Enrich your vocabulary. Match the picture and the beast.

a. bug b. owl c. ladybird d. crane d. wasp e. woodchuck f. turtle g. deer h. iguana

4. Name places where beasts can live in nature. Give example for each type of beasts.
e.g. Domestic animals live on the farm. Foxes live in forests.

5.. ex 2 p 38 in your book. Read the headlines. What problems do the natural habitats face? Write the problems. Explain why it happens.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. Mach the words/ phrases in bold to their meanings

1 Extremely small	A species
2 organisations that help people or animals	B hedgerows
3 types	C survive
4 rows of bushes between fields or along lanes	D become extinct
5 die out	E charities
6 continue living	F tiny

My answers:

a	b	c	d	e	f

7. Listen to and read the text and make notes under these headings. Us your notes to give the class a summery of the text.

a. where wildlife exists

b. the problem

c. the solution

Ht Make a poster

LIVEWORKSHEETS