WRITING – Page 103

B. Read the article one reader of Travel and Nature magazine wrote and answer the questions.

1. Which of the two titles below is the most suitable for it? Why?

a. Discover the Magic of Wolong

b. Wolong National Nature Reserve

2. What kind of information does the writer give in each paragraph?

Have you ever wondered where those cute, cuddly giant pandas you see in zoos come from? Well, last year on a trip to China I found out. I visited the Wolong National Nature Reserve. It was an unforgettable experience!

Wolong is a sanctuary for giant pandas and other endangered species. There, the pandas are protected and live in their natural habitat. Some of the pandas, especially the mothers and their babies, live in panda houses, where scientists study them. Others are free to roam the mountains, where you can see them playing, relaxing and chewing on their favourite food, bamboo.

'Wo Long' actually means 'sleeping dragon' and comes from a legend about a dragon that was overwhelmed by the beauty of the valley and fell asleep there, never to wake up again. A long dragon wall has been built there as a reminder of the legend. Like the dragon, I found the landscape absolutely breathtaking. The valleys with rivers and waterfalls surrounded by forest-covered mountains make the reserve a truly remarkable place.

If you are a nature lover, Wolong is sure to fascinate you. Seeing giant pandas in the wild is a once-in-a-lifetime experience. Why not plan a trip there and see for yourself?
