

Kindness in a Pandemic

Adapted from TIME for Kids, May 2020

The coronavirus pandemic is affecting people all around the world. In this crisis, people are finding ways to help others. TIME for Kids shows how people are helping in four of the countries with the most cases. Kindness can help spread hope.

What are people doing to help in your area?

vocabulary

*kindness = ደግነት, la bienveillance, la benevolencia, nezaket *hope = ተስፋ, l' espérance, la esperanza, umut ____ volunteer helps ____ patient at ____ hospital in Beijing, China.

People in Barcelona, Spain organize ____ group to make masks for ____ hospital and ____ elderly home.

_____ teen helps _____ worker prepare free lunches for the elderly at _____ restaurant in Alexandria, Louisiana.

_____ woman plays _____ accordion for her neighbors in Milan, Italy.

Grammar

We use "a" or "an" for singular nouns. We use "a" before a consonant. We use "an" before a vowel.

Write a or an.

_____ emergency

_____ virus

_____ umbrella

_____ electrician

_____ activity

_____ mistake

_____ assistant

_____ surprise

_____ accident

_____ party

_____ nurse

_____ oppportunity