American Vs. British English

1. Read and complete

1. A film is also called _____.
2. Americans called a lift _____.
3. In the USA people walk on the _____, not the pavement.
4. In New York, the underground is known as the _____.
5. The American word for football is _____.
6. Fall is the American word for _____.
7. British people don't have parking lots; they have _____.
8. The gas Americans put in their cars is called _____ in the U.K.
9. In the U.K. you never go on vacations; you go on _____.
10. If you ask for chips in London you get _____!
11. British people don't use cell phones; they use _____.

2. Choose the correct word in each sentence, using the type of English written at the end of the sentence.

1. There's cheese and _____ (biscuits / cookies) to follow. (British English)

2. John put the suitcase in the _____ (boot / trunk) of the car and then remembered that he'd forgotten to pack his camera. (British English)

3. There are ten English classes listed in the _____ (schedule / timetable). (American English)

4. There was a noise outside and Bill reached for his _____ (torch/ flashlight). (American English)

LIVEWORKSHEETS